

From: Billy Bangura <ebbang378@hotmail.com>

Date: May 27, 2006 3:13 PM

Subject: CONFIDENTIAL!!

To:

Dear sir,

CONFIDENTIAL

Compliment of the day!

I am Billy Bangura presently a political refugee in Europe, the son of the former MINISTER OF FINANCE of SIERRA LEONE, MR THAIMU BANGURA a gold dealer.

During the recent crisis in my country, my late father was captured and killed by the rebels who accused him of mis-appropriation of funds and embezzlement.

Shortly after his death, I and the rest of the family escaped to Europe via Ghana-West Africa region for safety.

He [my late father] left some document with me indicating consignment deposit made with a security company in U.K. before his death, which the content US $50M {Fifty Million United States Dollars}.

I and my family are soliciting for your personal assistance with top arrange and to receive this money on behalf of my family and ensure that the money is utilized wisely in a country of stable Economy like your country. The purpose of the money will be for a viable investment after we have collected the money from the security Vault Company. The box was deposited for safe-keeping and your assistance is required because our status as political refugee does not permit us to handle large sum of money here, and you will also be excepted to provide us with information on investment opportunities in your country. We do not wish to contact any of my late father's business comrades/partner because we do not know who exactly caused his death.

I and my family reason of contacting you is for your co-operation for you to assist the family in the removing of the fund out of the security company in your favour and ours as well. Moreover, to help us use the fund carefully for investment. All the necessary document are at my reach. With confidence in you as a trust-worthy person to act in good faith! I will introduce you to an attorney as my father's foreign partner who will assist you with legal proceedings.

Since your particulars will appear on every vital document as the owner of the fund this transaction will attract 30% for the assist you are rendering.

I look forward to your reply.

Best regards,

Billy Bangura.

[For: The Family]